TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1894.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

red at the Post-Office at New York as second-

BRANCH OFFICES:

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-J way and Stath ave. at $14 st. BONLD HARLEM OFFICE-19th st. and

ULY, 1894, BROKE ALL RECORDS IN

471,740

NEWSPAPER CIRCULATION.

WORLDS per day was the average for July, 1894.

dy, 1894 - - 471,740 per day uly, 1893 - - 393,033 per day Gain in 1 year 78,707 per day

ters of THE EVENING WORLD leaves the city for the hot months should send to their addresses and have THE EVANING WORLD ted to them regularly.

McKinlerism is no more forever.

ds as if something had dropped

Which yachteman is it that is now un

From this day on business should im nateed of getting worse. les Sands has justified her name. She had "sand" enough to win the ladies' cat-boat race in Newport yesterday. The decision on the question, "Will Morton accept?" may help us to and the question, "Will a duck swim?" thropist Pullman was not aske other there had been any reduction in the price of the Pullman berth. Ther as no need of asking.

War time profits for stockholders, wa prices for the public, but reduced a for the workman; this has been the Pullman programme.

Treason and treachery are hard terms to apply to men sworn to uphold the honor of the country. Yet the words to fit the case exactly.

doesn't fit very comfortably on the Gor-mans of the Senate after President Cleveland's ringing denunciation. etary Cartisle says he saw Bearles, whom he met while riding in an elevator. The elevator and stock went The Dowe bullet-proof coat is not in it with the cornet steel. Mrs. Nehling, of Williamsburg, owes her life to her corset. the would-be murderer and suicide Mr. Pullman's evidence before the his course towards the strikers. He met the easy questions smilingly, but took refuge behind Manager Wickes when the firing got too heavy.

Secure in his London quarters, Parmele police $100,000 for protecting him in carrying on his bunco game. His statement d have more effect if made unde eath before the Lexow Committee.

In his plea for separate elections, Mr. Choate lashed the Tammany tiger severely, but the political animal's hide to so hardened by recent castigations that even Mr. Choate's sharp words are not calculated to make any great impression.

Mr. Choate does not state the whole when he says that New York is ruled by five men. It would be more accurate to say that the five men rule New York by the aid of Republican ckers and in the absence of iccal seifgovernment.

The American woman can generally be counted on to give a good account of herself, and the aristocratic dames who are salling catboat races at Newport are strating that luxury has not enervated them nor unfitted them for high achievement. Good luck to their racing.

For eleven years, single handed, The of Brooklyn.

WHY NOT ACT TOGETHER!

The Lexow Committee is about to reonvene and resume its excellent work. It will doubtless be continued with the vigor and success that has hitherto marked its progress.

the trial conviction and punishment of other New Yorkers are now in gal Lexow investigation, in fact, he made haven't had any mass-meeting or any- An Example of the Noble Work of the instrument for at least the tem- thing of that kind, and a gental German porary protection and keeping in office contemporary, making a reckless dash of the public officers it is instrumental at English slang, tells us that Gilroy and in proving guilty of corrupt and criminal Grace do not speak "if they pass by.

heir continuance in office.

unfaithful men from the force. Mr. Goff, able and adroit, can push a Police Commissioner or a refractory vitness into a corner, satisfy the public mind that corrupt practices exist and supply the investigating Senators with good material for their report and good grounds for urging a measure of reform next year's Legislature.

Mr. Wellman, strong and practical, can bring guilt home to an offender and make his punishment certain trials on the first meeting of the Lexow committee were based on the suspicion that they might be designed to cover up instead of to expose crime, and to pro-tect instead of to punish offenders. The by Paul M. Potter in "an original play results of the trials show this suspicion have been unfounded, and there is hould not proceed at the same time.

Why should they not work together, at one and the same time, the discoveries of the one making easier the practically useful task of the other?

The Republican Police Commissioners vill make a mistake if they refuse to allow the police trials to proceed. The Lexow investigation will continue until next February, and there is no reason corrupt and unfaithful should be granted a lease of abused power for the next four months their way to a renewal of activity. veto, Mr. Cleveland writes a letter to pleasant young actor of limited scope.

THE NEW LAW.

Representative Catchings, of Mississippi, "The Victoria Cross" is a sort of Representative Catchings, of Mississippi, in reference to those so-called Demo- rendered seemingly novel by an Indian ratio Senators whose action defeated atmosphere, in which a vizier of the some of the most important features of Nawab of Rampore is villain-in-chief. the Wilson bill, and who were found and dandywallahs, kitmutzars and ayahs enlisted in the service of the "Trusts form the background. The play sugand combinations, whose machinations gests "Lord Chumley," "The Girl I have prevented us from reaching the Left Behind Me," "Lettarblair" and the course he has pursued are the condition of the country and the necessity for some sort of a settlement. But he being pressed for reminiscences. nsists on the expediency of the more comprehensive tariff reform contemplated by the Wilson bill, and feels enfident that the struggle will continue of trivial incidents that recall Belasco. to a successful issue, provided the Demcratic party challenges open warfare nd guards carefully against "treachery and half-heartedness in their camp."

The President is right. There can be go backward.

OUR BULERS ABROAD.

The cable brings the important intellie that Mayor Gilroy has not seen x-Secretary Whitney while in London; Mr. Gilroy; that ex-Mayor Grace will and a skittish young widow steal a onsent to no combination with Tam- paper from a convenient cabinet in many, and that Edward Parmelee Jones order to learn Sir Allan's route when mber of the Sugar Trust except Mr. selves about New York politics.

withdraw from the regattas is due to the accident on Saturday last, by which the was unnecessary.

The Victoria Cross" was exquisitely of the victoria Cross worthy of lost their lives. But this is scarcely a staged, the pictures being worthy of of the Cape May Cup race. There are those who believe that Albert Edward is unwilling to risk the perpetually. They were as peacockesque loss of the honors he has already won. and is afraid of Vigilant in the challenge race. But Mr. Gould declares his intertion to insist on the contest, and claims that if Britannia does not sail against Vigilant she must give up the cup. Mr. Gould will bring his yacnt home with a fairly good record after all.

MISPLACED BASEBALI.

William Schriver, one of the catchers Cavezzi Says the Revolver Was World" has fought for an income jax, and of the Chicago ball team, has succeeded to-day the battle has been won. Million- in catching a baseball dropped from the aires, politicians and their newspaper top of Washington Monument. He is were arrayed against it, but the the second ball-player to attempt the feat trial on a charge of attempted felonious cause of the people triumphed. Wage-sarrers are saved $20,000,000 ayear in taxes which the rich must now pay. Truly, a glorious victory.

"The woman tempted me, and I did eat." said Adam. "This woman has form my heart in two, and I will not live tonger," says Coachman Schinkling, starting out with his revolver. "I believe you are the author of this man's trouble," says Justice Quigley, addressing wildow Clauss, who had demanded the processing of the second ball-players to attempt the feat and he succeeded at once. The law of gravity in the second second and so on has, it is said, heretofore deterred ball-players from attempting this feat, for Washington More tonger," says Coachman Schinkling, starting out with his revolver. "I believe you are the author of this man's trouble," says Justice Quigley, addressing wildow Clauss, who had demanded the gravity put together.

We are glad, though, to know that the cause of the people triumphed. Wage- and he succeeded at once. The law earners are saved $20,000,000 a year in taxes of gravity, which declares that an ob-the Bible sustained by the course of this Summer. They have not done much sevents in the Gates Avenue Police Court, on the ball field and it may be as well $21,050 IN THE FUND. vents in the Gates Avenue Police Court, on the ball field, and it may be as well now that Papa Anson has found something his players can do to suborn the ploy his nine right along in catching balls dropped from the top of the altitudigous memorial.

THE MAYOR AND MOUNSEER DEIBLER.

But why should the searching out and Mayor Gilroy, ex-Mayor Grace, exxposure of wrong-doing interfere with Secretary of Navy Whitney and some the doers of wrong? Why should the "Paree." The three gentlemen named

As they are all over there for personal The Lexow Committee can only un-purposes, and seemingly on pleasure earth corruptions with a view to the bent, it is nobody's business what they future correction by legislation of the are doing. But there have been rumors evil methods that render them possible. in connection with our Mayor's visit to Visitors to the Dome Pulitzer Building It can lay the groundwork of reform in the French capital that should be dissi- Progress Club. future. It cannot give us protection pated at once. We have no authority Entertainment, 58 St. Mark's place in the present nor bring guilty men to for saying so, but we feel called upon, justice and rid the city of the danger of nevertheless, to deny the story that Mr. Fair. Gilroy is over there dickering with The police trials can apply an imme- Mounseer Deibler for a brief engage. Fair. Laing's Cottage. Arverne, Miss diste remedy by driving dishonest and ment with his guillotine in the pantatery at 300 Mulberry street.

"THE VICTORIA CROSS."

A star is a most insatiable person. He wants all the fat of the play, a number of nice men and women playing fiddles, Entertainment, 242 West One Hundred of less importance than his own, and a tailor-making playwright, who has tape, scissors and the reputation of fitting well. In the Bowery, the insistent star rescues heroines from tanks, discomfits | Pestival, Midland Park, N. J., Bessie tears. On upper Broadway, where tanks are not allowed, the hero covets telling Entertainment. Nicola Dramate Club. situations sympathetic episodes and a Fair, 509 Baltic street, Mamie Smith few climaxes of service to himself.

E. H. Sothern has been fitted with a Fair Eighty-third street and Lexington large suit of upper Broadway heroism of East India life," called "The Victoria Cross." which was produced for the first clamber up the flexible rope of sympa- Pair. Thirty-second street and Third thy into the somewhat apathetic hearts of a polite audience. There was no of course; no ladder of life, no tank. burning building. Mr. Sothern, however, is called upon to dance Sir Roger de Coverly with a broken arm, for the sake of his lady love, and then faint from sheer, excruciating anguish; to idiotically permit himself to father the cowardice of another, and a most uninter-The Tariff bill is now a law, and the esting young person, for no earthly rea- pair, 719 Quincy street, Isabel Douglas usiness men of the country can see son but to make the audience love him. and finally to treat the villain kindly permitting the constitutional and set everything right. It is a nice, limitation of time to expire without a clean, insipid and conspicuous role for a which he uses some plain language chowder made up of other plays, and "Diplomacy." These are curried, as it The reason given by the President for were, and served hot, and they are not at all unpleasant to the taste. They are four good plays, and they can stand

The story of "The Victoria Cross," which is at times almost lost sight of to Sir Allan Strathallan's bungalow. There are pretty girls, swell women and end-of-century youths in this bungalow. Ralph, the padre, fallsin love so resurrection of McKinleyism now that with the prettiest of the girls, and as it is laid in its grave. Reform does not he has already won the Victoria cross, she looks upon him as a hero. He takes pretty good care that she shall: so does Potter. There is an uprising of natives on account of Sir Allan's horseracing man-horses being looked upon as sacred in India-and the bungalow is besieged. The villainous Ahmedoollah part a sort of downtown vehemence that satisfactory reason for the cancelling any that have been in the Lyceum. The ladies of the bungalow all wore the most gorgeous of gowns, and changed them in this bungalow as though they had een in Park lane or Fifth avenue. Still, the women in a play must dress, satin gown, cut low, when she could the Rocky Mountains, knew her bus ALAN DALE.

SHOT AT HIS ENEMY.

Accidentally Discharged. Nicolo Cavezzi, twenty-four years old. was held in default of $1,000 bail for Washington Monument "cop" and em- A Popular Charity with an Army Under Its Banners.

> " Nell Nelson's " Sympathetic Story of One Baby's Death.

the Free Doctors.

The Subscriptions.

Previously arknowledged . Fair, Laing's Cottage, Arverne, Miss Fannie Reinheimer and others Miss Carrie Spregler and others 28 Kossuth place, Lena Podeyn and others .... Stella Bunting and others. Fair. 58 East One Hundred and Six-teenth street, Jennie Lampert and 14.00

Pair, Jolly Ten .... Pair, 1174 Greene avenue, Minnie Kirchner and others. and Twenty-fourth street, Miss Addie 12.5 Crist and others. Baueball Game, Bradhurst and Edge-and others.

10.15

combe.

avenue. Louis Croheim and Fair, Seventy-third street and Second avenue, C. Berger and others. win and others.

avenue. Mamie McWilliams and others Entertainment, 364 Van Buren street, Frances Newman and others Fair, 1791 Fulton street, Wilms Horn and others. Fair, Eltingville, Nora R. Wilson and Candy Stand, 348 East Pirty-ninth street, Abte Dane Mendon Alexander Pfeiffer, 707 East Pifth and others. Lemonade Stand, Lillian Reed .. ..... Baby Lenora Nathan .. Rose Morganstein and Celia Rubin .....

D. Brown, Rockville Centre. street, Gussie Murphy .. Blanche Adansky, 41 East One Hundred Leo Goldsmith and others .....

"I lost the baby, but there is hope for the other three," an "Evening World" physician wrote to the chief of corps. Nothing human could have saved that little creature down in East Thirteenth street. It had only been on earth six months, but in that short time disease and the blights of poverty and Summer heat had aged its baby face and withered its delicate form. There were seven in the family. The father has had no work for the past eight months, and the mother is do domestic service. All Winter the house agent had been nidulgent. Finally notice was given. The rooms had to be cleaned. When the kalsominers arrived they were still occupied. Then the law took its course, and the furniture and children were put on the sidewalk. It rained during the night. A romancer might have said that the heavens wept in pity. It would have been kinder if they had been less demonstrative, for the three young children caught cold, which developed into whooping-cough Through the goodness and mercy of consent to no combination with Tammany, and that Edward Parmelee Jones and James McNally, kings of the New York based of the Sugar Trust except Mr. Selves about New York politics. The elevator and stock went teams time.

The prince of the American people, and the received the to the people of New York what they shall do about their public affairs?

A great many self-constituted leaders Are Just now busying themselves with the manission was in keeping with towards the strikers. He med the strikers He med the strikers He med the strikers he may be political problem, and stricking his Man Man Parmelee of the strikers He med the problem, and stricking his Man Man Parmelee of the State and city of New York politics.

A great many self-constituted leaders Are Just now busying themselves with the manission was in keeping with towards the strikers. He med the problem, and stretching his London quarters, Parmelee are he has pald the New York 200 for protecting him in carry-to bunco game. His statement of the besident his season, and the boat remaining the strikers are he has pald the New York what there were coughing themselves to death. He rolled thin up. Fortunated Richards and the politics of the State and city of New York politics. The Prince of the American people, and the political problem, and stretching him to arry-to be political problem, and stretching him described the political problem, a the very real estate firm who caused their eviction, the family found a home

Three Send This.

To the Editor: Inclosed please find 54 cents for the Sick Bables Fund, subscribed by the following little girls. EMMA COOK,
MATTIE TOMPSON,
BESSIE MASON,
East One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street.

Elderthurst Hotel, Rocksway.

To the Editor.
Inclosed please find $6, the proceeds of an en tertainment given at the Elderthurst Hotel, Hammed's Statton, Rockaway Beach, Sunday evening, Aug 19, 1894, by the children of the hotel. They all worked very hard to get as much for your noble charity as was in their power, and wished it was more. Hattle Mayer and and wished it was more. Hattie Mayer and Madelaine Geary deserve a great deal of credit for their work in this affair. After the entertainment there was a hop given. By the kind assistance of Mr. Zittel in delivering the opening aspeech, we were greatly helped. The pregramme was as follows: Lottle Martin, himself of the martin of the ma

Progress Lodge. No. 4 of the Order of True Priends, which comprises a targe and representaand Twenty-seventh atreet and Second avenue. The good work of this estimable order commends their to the charity of the kindly disposed, who should follow the good example set in some majiner, no metter how triffing, to alleviate the way of the poor. The most indefatigable worker the pleasure grounds that night was John Byrne. The officers of Progress worked with a determination to swell the receipts of the festival in order that they might be able to turn in a creditable sum to the Sick Bables' Fund. Past President A. J. Foreyth helped two little girls. Ann Elizabeth and Maude E. Srooks, daughters of President George Brooks, to collect, and the girls gathered together 116.25. The Lodge added $11.50. Altogether the Sick Bables' Fund benefit $27.25 by the festival. Following are the officers. George Brooks, President James J. Slavin, Vice-President, James Bier, Recording Secretary; Peter Medicals, Charles and President James Berger Recording Secretary; George K. Sinsahaugh, Financial Secretary; Peter Medicals. Sinsabaugh, Financial Secretary, Peter Mcide, Treasurer, Bernard McGianess, Golde; E.

Jonnes, Warleis, All the Supreme and Past esidents to the Order were present, viz.; A.
Huzley, Alex Forsyth, John Inyme and Dr.
A. E. McKee. Others present were Herman
Erb. H. H. Gregory, Jacob Hanmel, M. J.
Hly Michael Keane, John L. Graham, A. Wyle, mes Liewellon, Maz Wallenskein, Dr. George Steel, Robert Buchanan, Joseph Frey, Graharre, R. E. Bette, George Wettigrew and sob Hammel. Past President Huxley disposed 160 tickets for the occasion and Secretary run came next in order in the sale list, he have & disposed of 55 tickets. Secretary Byrne was merly secretary and editor of Progress Lodge,

To the Editor:

Thirteen is said to be an unlucky number with a fair held at 1735 Madison avenue, which realized $101.55 for the Baby Fund. There were thirteen little ladies running it, and they did

Eight Bright Children.

To the Editor: and entertainment held at 232 East Seventy-fire street on last Monday, Tuesday and Thursda venings under the care of eight bright and chaevenings under the care of eight bright and charitable children.

Pannie Reinheimer,
Celta Reinheimer,
Max Gutwillig,
Ham Josepha,
Jerome Jaeger, Roste Marz.

Toe much cannot be said of the zeal they displayed in their noble work of helping the bables.
Master Jerome Jaeger took charge of the entertainment on Thursday evening, and the admirable way in which the programme was arranged speaks well for his ability. Messrs. Appler and liuffy, he singing comedians of the Sar V. Totten Association, kindly volunteered their services, as did Miss May Patton. The Misses Irene and Dora Marz. aged respectively five and six years, two bright children, did some clever fancy dancing The children desire to thank Messrs Steinway a Sons for their kindness in loaning them beand, and also to assure "The Evening World" that they will do better next time.

A magic-lantern show was given at 15 Webster A magne-tanters how was given at a version place, South Brooklyn, on Aug. S. in honor of Mij-tred Marke's third birthday, at which $5.25 was emalized for the sick babies.

May Cheelite,
Charles Anderson,
Joseph Cheelite,
South Brooklyn, N. T.

A Splendid Fair in Brooklyn.

lenth, 157 Nevins street, Brooklyn, Aug. 8 to 11. t which we realized $21.32. Mr. F. deal.

MELLIE GRAY, 250 Wyckoff street.

MAGGIE MACK, 268 Wyckoff street.

MAGGIE MACK, 268 Wyckoff street.

MAGGIE MACK, 268 Wyckoff street.

MANNIE BUNGE, 157 Novins street.

MELEN GRAY, 176 Novins street.

MARGARET GRAY, 248 Warren street.

A First-Class Fair.

To the Editor: Inclosed please find $21, proceeds of a fair held at 260 West One Hundred and Pifteenth street. Mrs. Kessler was kind enough to allow us, the use of an empty flat. Inclosed also please for photograph of our "Mascota." Harrison and David Gordon. Trusting we may atili be able to benefit the noble cause, we remain. Arthur Reichman and John Bioore, managera, who were kindly assisted by Sydney Rubland and Lole and Marche Parients.

Two Little Boys.

Here are 14 cents. We are two little boys. We have saved one-half of all our July pennies for the sick little babies. Our Uncle George is a writing this letter for us. We are seven and

CLARKY VOORHIES, Little Lemonade Sellers. Wendel Stein, of 1960 Broadway, assisted by his brother, Willie, send $2.50 which they In Stamps.

the Sick Pables' Fund from two little girls RAY ROSENBERG, ROSIE SPERG,
ROSE SPERG,
ROSE SPERG,
ROSE SPERG,
ROSE SPERG,
ROSE SPERG,
ROSE SPERG,
ROSENBERG,
ROSENBERG,
RAY ROSENBERG, ROSENB

ed please find 50 cents postage stamps for

They Are Four. To the Editor:

Inclosed you will find $2 which we collected by selling lemonade and candy. We hope it will do some good to the little ones. We are four. Mary Durke, II. Alice McCullough, 14. Katis McCullough, 8. Maggie Harnett, 12. With Love to the Babies,

To the Editor: We the undersigned, have collected $2.10 to the Sick Babies' Fund, and hope that this will give joy to some little one. With love to the habies.

LOUIS PLANNKY,
JUSIE KOIN.

All from 430 East Pity-eight street. Given to the Babies. To the Editor: Inclused please find $2.50, which you may use # for any charitable purpose which you may deem the best.

To the Editor: or getting higher degrees in the comme Inclosed find $8.25, the proceeds of a fair which ive membership, held a grand Summer-night's was held on Saturday, Aug. 18. We hope this

> Your Letter Will Appear Later. All letters from contributors to the Sick Rabi Pond will be printed. Many are in type and to proposer in this column later.

LETTERS.

(This column is open to correlady who mation to give. a subject of peneral interest to cuss or a public service to acknowledge, an

The Poet and the Flies.

To the Editor: Ideas fly fast, but flies fly faster, The poet to fret and epite; His mightlest thoughts these fiends can master And put them at once to flight. The files get the best of dreams and rest, And ruin a Summer night!

He carries to bed a roll of paper On which to indite his dreams-But look at the files that round it caper, And darken his fancy's sleams! As oft in a gust, a cloud of due O'ershadows the bright sun's beams.

The fly-paper sold by grocer's 'prentice Can never attract like this The post exclaims: "What plagues are sent us!" Though scoffers malign the post fine, Files worship his frenzied phis!

The song of the flies at night sound sadder To him than a sportne nose And, if he is mad, they make him madder; They good him to rave in prose; His sones they outsine: with leg and wing They worry his head and toes!

And into his eye. Oh, my! they fly, sirt Till wildly he yearns to die, as die, sir, His exquisite dreams in air! The Summer he hates. Jack Frost, wegates! Approach and dispel despair! LYTTELTON L. BAKER, 407 Eighth street. South Brooklyn Wages and Immigration.

To the Editor: It is pleasant to think as John S. that with free trade and a tax of $200 on each immigrant in five years' time every laborer would he earning 40 cents an hour, and we shall have ousted England. France and Germany from the markets of the world. Fortunately fo try however the majority do not think as Mi Brown does; for "thinking" might beget "acting" and acting on such illogical assumptions would most certainly result to the detriment of all thos whom it were supposed to benefit. Wages are plaids, checks and military cloths. This ng higher wages are thus encouraged, and the aboring man becomes independent. The manufacturer is in business, not for pleasure, but for profit. If the manufacturer's profits decline and employment elsewhere is uncertain, the wageserver must consent to a reduction or resign ble essens profits, but in many cases closes our factories, swelling the army of unemployed, many of whom, as a natural consequence, becomes inmates of prison, poorhouse, &c., thus increasing way up on hygiene, and would be horries, and the others serve as a handy weapon for the manufacturer to use against his employees, who, to save themselves from a worse fate, gen The to save themselves from a When such best means of ventilation the room has conditions exist, to restrict immigration is a very in Summer. The draught which keeps poor remedy, because there would then be noththem away. We cannot compete with foreign procut down to the level (barring a small fraction or their wages raised to our standard probably gain the ascendancy over European pro

Reading the Bible.

To the Editor: repeated attacks upon the Holy Bible by impede that air current. some of your correspondents constrain me to make a few remarks in reply. In the first place, Hebrew language, the understanding and trans ation of the same is by no means an easy matter. Secondly, it was written, as Josep forms us, allegorically, philosophically and litrally, which shows that besides its literal translation there is another meaning. Take, for instance, the first sentence, which has been trans unreamonable to think that God had first create the heavens and the little speck in the univerwhich we call the earth, while all the rest of th uns and planets had to wait until the fourth therefore: "In the beginning Delty create Matter and the Ethereal." And so it is simos with the entire Bible as regards to translation There is within a hidden truth which cannot be up now for Autumn brides, tourists and stained by the simple reading of one version. those elegant New York women who af-The truth here is a prize to be won only by fect the severest styles for street wear. with the ornamental knots is put on the those who seek it diligently and with a view to The skirts are absolutely plain, made of skirt. use it wisely when they have procured it.

Cigarettes in Moderation

To the Editor: For the benefit of "Cigarette Harry" I would theap grade-five cents a package of ten) for the Prussian collar, fits tight, and is becomtwenty-four hours. My health has always been good, not having been sick a single day during that time. I would be willing to bet the price of the bat "Cigarette Harry" was talking through when he wrote his article to "The Evening World" that he will be smoking before many days Laving all tokes saide. I think "Cigartte Harry" must have had a defective figs. No smoking, for, of course, there are people who make hogs of themselves, and I think he is one f that kind. N. B.-I am of the opinion that cigarettes will

n moderation. Irish Girl's Stockings.

prolong the life of any one if they are smoked

In common with your correspondent "Scotch Fish," I also acticed the statement in "The more valuable than diamonds of similar York is not seen there. Instead the fine Evening World" that "in their native lands Irish size and quality. In appraising rubles frizzes worn by the Princess of Wales. and Scotch girls seldom wear stockings." Your his imagination. Knowing Ireland, as I do, from Cape Clear to Malin Head, I beg to say I never met an Irish giri who did not wear stockings, except in very femote country districts. Imagine the girls in Grafton street, Dublin; High street, Selfast, or Patrick street, Cork, promenading minus stockings! Oh, ye gods! the idea is too grotesque for even the American public to con-ceive. EUGENIAN, Jersey City.

She Is Driving Him Crasy.

I have been keeping company with a young Sunday last, and I asked her if she would be willing to accept me. The answer she gave me was: "I'm too young (she is nineteen) and don't know you long enough to marry you." I am just about crasy. What shall I do?
Ale Brooklyn, N. Y.

This Is Interesting.

To the Editor: I am a young lady thirty years of age. I am rich, accomplished and beautiful. I have several gruiemen friends who are in my company a graham flour, one teaspoonful of sait, great deal, but never speak of leve. They have one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a many opportunities, but never take advantage of little hot water, one teaspoonful of bakthem. How shall I gain their affection?

To the Editor: I wish to know from some of your correspondents whether there are in New York any private schools of navigation, where a common sailor can obtain sufficient theoretical knowledge necessary

A Sattor Wants to Know.

He's Not Sentimental. to the Editor: to the houser: Can any one inform me how to tall whether my gentleman friend loves me or not? He is cover a theatre bodice.

Don't Do It.

to appear. "Now. Mrs. L. thinks she is fied if she was told to the contrary, but means of keeping any room well ven-

Beauty Breakfast--Wednesday.

Fried Mush-Melted Butter.

Milk Toast.

Coffee.

Oxford Cloth Will Be Worn,

A brand-new material fortailor dresse

'Oxford mixt." It is a rough surface changeable blue or red silk, with pull-

Chicken Wings.

extremely tender. Then make a puree of peas, by boiling a quantity of peas, tender draining and nashing through a sieve and seasoning with salt and pepper

the sieve thicken with a tablespoonful of flour to every quart of peas. Wet the flour with cold water and cook for two minutes. Serve on a steak dish with the Priceless Rubies.

lastly, perfect formation. A perfect scratches and flaws are insignificant if strong. In examining these stones the judges hunt for clouds or milk spois; if none is found a "pigeon's blood," weighing a fraction-over a carat, will bring

Linen Lettering.

Just now it is the style to mark linen with type. Some of the Leautiful hand-devoted wives and daughters have the printed initials worked in blue thread.

Initials seem to be masculine; feminine

Eat brown bread, girls, and be healthy and good-looking. Here is recipe from one of the teachers of hygienic cooking:

One pint of sour milk, one quart of ing powder, one-half cupful of Orleans molasses. Eat with plenty of sweet butter for breakfast. At lunch or dinner, if bread, with tea, coffee, chocolate or bolled milk, is a meal that will do the

Why Gloves Don't Last.

Every woman who buys the kid gloves for the family knows that the men's and children's last twice as long as her own.

A man's $2 glove goes out of style be-women's gloves is due entirely to her women folks a lot of good.

taste runs to monogram decorations.

Brown Bread for Beauty.

kerchiefs that are bought for folks by the owner a little fortune.

ruby is rarely or never found; cracks the color is good and the brilliancy wings piled on top.

and butter. Just before mashing through Gendarme Cape. This is the cape worn by the French the skin is literally shaved, making the The service cloth is dark suede or undressed kid glove. Of course blue, and in bad weather the hood is this process destroys the wearing qualdrawn over the head. This is the model ity at least 50 per cent. Another thing for the Winter cape, now being designed women want elastic kid, so as to make for New York girls in homespuns, a No. 6 glove fit a 63-4 hand. To get > room, where the heat makes each skin expand two-thirds of its original size. Naturally the texture is weakened, and by the time the delicate skin gets on a woman's hand it has had 70 per cent. of ts life worn out. Kid skin is durable, as proved by its value to shoe, pocketbook and fancy-box manufacturers, Shop-Made Silk Petticonts. Dry-goods merchants are shrewd. A month or so ago there was a cut in silks, and taffetas, in all the season's checks, stripes and tints of color were lumped at 50 cents. Instead of waiting for the modistes and importers to get around and bundle them up for linings, the managers sent the best pieces to the dressmaking department, and had them made into petticoats, with clusters of pinked ruffles, puckered out, back gores and responsive drawstrings of silk braid. Now they are fluttering in beauty and airlness from the limbs of clothes-trees, with a $5.59 price-card in relief. It takes seven yards of silk to make the model skirt. Counting the cost of labor, thread, drawstrings and pinking, the merchant's profits are not dainty hand look big, and so the face of this the stock is put into a steaming-

Simple Breakfast in Japan.

In Japan the breakfast of the gentlefolks is even lighter than the morning repast of the bon-ton of Europe. London has toast and tea; Paris, rolls and cafe au lait; Berlin, the same; Vienna high when work is plenty and laboring men one has olives; others are fastened with ditto, and Rome, sweet biscuits and cofscarce. A protective tariff by shutting out foreign two or three horn buttons. They are all fee. In the Mikado's realms there is no productions, opens our factories and decreases the long enough to cover the walking coat, bread for breakfast—nothing but clear long enough to cover the walking coat, bread for breakfast-nothing but clear anks of the unemployed. The chances for securification and second many are handsomely lined with plaid tea and sweet pickled wild plums, or tea silk or changeable satin, intended to with fresh fruit seasoned with pepper. In the sweet contrariness of these fantastic little people vegetables are served with sugar and fruits with condiments. "It is all very well to want to deco-We preserve citron, pineapples, ginger, rate an open fireplace," said a prominent cherries and melon rind; they have canwoman physician, as we sat waiting in died beans, peas, beets and other roots.

Cost of Living in France.

The European plan of living is most with that gaudy screen concealing the France one can get a very comfortable fireplace the is shutting off one of the room with a single bed, one window, the usual furniture and a sepulcher of a stove, that burns like a lucifer match the fire burning in Winter doesn't stop and gives as much heat, for 50 cents, That is always attractive to a lone place, with its draught, is a splendid woman. Everything else is bought under the head of "extras," and their tilated and also cooler. In hotels, where growth is romething fearful. To with the ugly black iron screen is fastened Candles, 20 cents; fire, 25 cents; service, tightly over the opening, it should be 20 cents; coffee and rolls, 15 cents; ice removed. With one window open and the fireplace not stopped up with a lot letter-paper, 5 cents—every single, soilof truck, a fine current of air can be tary thing called for is extra. If a peach secured that is a blessing. Nothing more or an egg is ordered for breakfast 15 than a potted plant or palm should ever cents is added to expenses. Two loaves of sugar and a spiral curl of butter go with the coffee, but if another portion is asked for there is another nickel to pay. Living is not cheap, but there, as everywhere, one can live cheaply.

Here's news for the girls who love the militaire. Hussar coats will be worn. They are to be made in military gray covert cloth and trimmed with black military braid, exactly like the Austrian horse-artillerymen wear. s the Oxford cloth, known in trade as clines to the Prince Albert-that is, it has a seam over the hips, which gives soft woollen black stuff mixed with the skirt spring and makes the figure white: it drapes like Chinese crepe, and trim. The back is tight-fitting: braid wears like haircloth. It is being made covers the curve lines running from the arms to the waist, and gay little Aus-

Ment, Vegetables and Strength. backs to hold the organ plaits. The coat recommended is the combination model. Those bloodthirsty meat-eaters wht which, by the arrangement of buttons claim that animal food is indispensable and lapels, can be worn double-breasted, to muscular strength should not forget high neck or open in front. It has a that the cow is gentle and the noble grass. Deer, sheep, elephants, the gazelle and other grand and beautiful A nice dish can be made from the wings of fowls by stewing slowly until extremely tender. Then make a puree milk and grain. Ferocity, venom, craftness, treachery and all the passions of brute creation are supposed to be nurither fresh or canned, in water until # tured by animal food.

English Coiffures. A peculiarity of English women is the wearing of elaborate coiffures. Nowhere is so much false nair worn as in England. It is made up in all sorts of ingenious ways to be pinned on bodily. The fashion of parting the hair and wearing the little curl in the middle Fine rubles of one carat are ten times of the forehead so prevalent in New York is not seen there. Instead the fine four points are considered-first of all, and her daughters are imitated by most clearness; second, color; third, size, and of the sex. Stock from Paris.

s white ribbon, the bows are wired and the ends trimmed with lace. For evening wear these stocks are reproduced in white and jewel-colored chiffon.

To Save the Hair.

An old charlatan, who made enough money out of hair restoratives to retire ter for breakfast. At lunch or dinner, if from business, gives the following pre-there is meat, omit the butter. This scription for hair that fails out, and warrants it a harmless if helpless remedy:

Pulverized sulphur, one teaspoonful. Olycerine, four ounces. Bathing whiskey, one-half pint. Rock sait, one-half cupful.

Paris Hens Are Like Ours. In Paris, as in New York, eggs are fore it shows wear. The expense of among the table luxuries. Dealers keep "eggs," "fresh eggs" and "new-laid that a dressed kid glove makes her her money and takes her choice.

Direy .

The ( ast nig mown a "A Nigh the cast

E. Dixe. and Mr. ceived comer.

and to lerg's o the ardu theatre rightful an exce FOURT

Ha